

WESTERLY ACCIDENT PROVES FATAL

Mrs. Joseph Burnet Dies From Injuries Received When Trolley and Automobile Collide—Insurance Inspector Investigates Squidrito Fire—Welch-Budlong Marriage.

The one hundred and forty-eighth annual session of the Warren Baptist association, which was held at the church of Westerly, was held in the Second Baptist church, East Providence, Wednesday. Delegates from the twenty-eight churches of the association were present, and the session was one of the largest in attendance for many years.

Rev. J. A. Jones, of the First Baptist church, the moderator of the association, presided, and after prayer, Rev. Frank L. Wilkins, pastor of the entertaining church, submitted the report of the committee of arrangements. The annual sermon was preached by Rev. C. M. Gallup, of the Central church, Providence, on the theme, "The Cutting Edge of Christianity." The report of the committee of the relief fund followed by an offering for the fund, reading of church letters, prayer and adjournment of morning session.

The afternoon session was opened with devotional service led by Rev. H. W. Watson, D. D., of Providence. The report of the committee on affiliation of ministerial relief with National Benefit Fund was read by Rev. C. D. D., who graduated from Westerly High school in the class of 1876, his father at that time being pastor of the Rev. J. A. Jones, pastor of the Central church. He is general secretary of the Ministers and Missionaries Benefit Board of the Northern Baptist convention.

Several addresses were made under the head, "The Efficient Church, as follows: Rev. Frederick M. White, P. D., on In Evangelism and Conversion; Rev. Edward Holyoke, D. D., on Social Service and Civic Betterment; Miss E. Carol Hodge, in Temperance Work; Rev. John Stewart, secretary Rhode Island Baptist Convention, on Our State Work; Rev. Franklin G. McKee, D. D., on Our Future as Baptists.

The session of officers resulted in the choice of Rev. Clarence M. Gallup, moderator, and Rev. William T. Green, clerk and treasurer. Rev. J. A. Jones, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, Westerly, was elected a member of the permanent council with a statement to the committee on state of religion. It was voted to hold the next meeting of the association at the Calvary Baptist church in Providence. Rev. J. V. Vichart was selected to preach the annual sermon, with Rev. Joseph L. Peacock, of Westerly, as alternate.

A resolution was passed at the evening session protesting against the practice of the liquor business and that such an arrangement would perpetrate the liquor business and retard the advance of prohibition. The session was in this order: Devotional service, led by Rev. F. A. Cunningham; reports of committees, introduction of moderator and clerk for coming year; singing; presentation of petitions; prayer; offering for relief fund; address, Manliness Christianity, Rev. Loren A. Cleveland, D. D., of Providence; prayer and adjournment.

Mrs. Joseph L. Peacock, of Westerly, state director of the Women's Home and Foreign Mission societies, gave an address on the subject of "Our Responsibility, at a union meeting held at the noon recess at which Mrs. Sidney Hobart, president, Miss Martha Brown, of Boston, gave an address on Experiences at the Boston World. There were the usual devotional exercises.

Mrs. Annie Stone Burnet, 69, died at midnight Wednesday, at Rev. J. A. Jones' home, from the effects of injuries received on the afternoon of September 8, when the automobile in which she was riding was struck by a trolley car of the Groton and Stonington division of the Shore Line Electric Railway company. The automobile, which was totally wrecked, was owned by Mrs. Clara Stanton, who was with Mrs. Burnet and Cornelius Farrell when the accident occurred. Mrs. Burnet and Mr. Farrell were seriously injured, they are recovering. Mrs. Stanton being able to leave her home, and Mr. Farrell will soon be in condition to resume his accustomed duties.

Mrs. Burnet is the widow of Jacob Burnet, Jr., who was a lawyer, with residence at Cincinnati. Many years ago Jacob Burnet, Sr., came to Watch Hill and realizing the future of the place as a summer resort, invested largely in real estate. His family, occupied the Edward Vose farm. Jacob Burnet, Jr., inherited the property and carried on the work of developing the property, building summer cottages and selling or renting them. In this work Mr. Burnet was ably assisted by Mrs. Burnet, who was possessed of unusual business ability. Upon the death of her husband, Mrs. Burnet continued the development of her real estate and she assisted materially in establishing Watch Hill as a fashionable summer resort. At the time of her death she owned property at Watch Hill that is valued at $40,000, perhaps one-quarter of its actual value.

By reason of her many years at Watch Hill, Mrs. Burnet was known to nearly every resident of Westerly. She leaves a daughter and two sons; also, two sisters, Miss Mary B. Stone of Newport and Mrs. Phillips Clarke, of London, England.

An insurance inspector was in Westerly Thursday, making an investigation of the destruction by fire, last Thursday night, of the unoccupied three-tenement house in Pond street, and owned by Anthony Squidrito, of Stonington. Mr. Squidrito held a mortgage on the property and became the owner thereof. The fire broke out at about 11 o'clock, and the fire and public departments stated that the fire was of incendiary origin.

In the superior court Wednesday the petition of Lena C. McNeil of Westerly for divorce from Lewis Stanton McNeil was granted and petitioner was given permission to change her name to Lena Clarke Chase. Other divorce granted were: Mattie E. Williams from Cyrus Williams, Nina M. Driscoll from Eugene F. Driscoll, George L. Brown from Grace Young from William Henry Young, Mary A. Greene from Wanton Greene, Susan Y. Austin from Clarence A. Austin, Susan P. Rowland from Miner A. Rowland, Mary J. Mascotte from Joseph H. Mascotte, Elina C. McLennan from Louis A. McLennan, Iva M. Cahoon from Thomas B. Cahoon and custody of two minor children.

The case of Annie Babcock Brown against Alexander C. Brown was continued until next week. James Avery Pendleton against Alice Max Pendleton was granted.

The complaint of Nicholas B. Lamm against Isaac B. Miller was discontinued from the docket. The case of James D. Caswell against John Cross, charged with reckless driving, was settled out of court by payment of fine and costs. The case of George H. Sheldon, appellant, against Everett E. Jones was assigned for trial Nov. 18th.

The funeral of James Shea, held Wednesday with a requiem mass in St. Michael's church, was attended by many relatives and friends. Rev. William A. Krause sang the mass. "Passing Beyond the Shadow" was sung by St. Michael's choir. The bearers were John J. Donohue, J. Joseph Murphy, John Gallagher, Daniel Sullivan, Maurice J. Connors and Jeremiah Shea. The deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Shea. His age was 18. John, Patrick and Jeremiah and Minnie Shea.

In the superior court for Washington county, in a session at Watch Hill, Pasquale Salameo pleaded nolo to the charge of assaulting with intent to kill by shooting Sandy Brown in a saloon in Westerly. He was sentenced to six months in the Providence county jail. Thomas E. Champlin, he who shot up the Girard lumber camp and who was indicted on four charges, three for assault with a dangerous weapon and one for defacing a building, pleaded guilty to one charge of assault and the others were withdrawn. He was sentenced to seven months in the Providence county jail. Frederick Pain pleaded guilty to breaking and entering a building in the daytime and with larceny. He was given option of serving in the state reform school until he attained his majority, four years, or six months in the Providence county jail.

Local Laconics.

Alfred L. Maddock of the Hartford Courant is spending a few days at his home in Westerly.

Misses Nell and Mary S. Fuller of St. Augustine, Fla., are guests of Miss Mary Starr Uter in Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bennett have returned to Westerly from a trip to Baltimore, Norfolk and Newport News.

Several criminal cases are assigned for trial at the session of the third district court which convenes in Westerly today.

The steam heater that has been in service in the First Baptist church for a quarter of a century is being removed and a new and modern heater is to be substituted.

The Rhode Island registry number of his touring car is 4545 and he considers himself the champion 45 player of the Catholic club. His residence at No. 45 High street and his name is Dr. Michael H. Scanlon.

The members of class No. 15 of the First Baptist Sunday school, Mrs. J. F. Farnsworth teacher, held their monthly meeting at Pleasant View Thursday. There were several readings and refreshments were served.

So far as known there is no opposition in Westerly to the renomination of the present delegation in the Rhode Island legislature, Senator Louis W. Arnold and Representative Joseph T. Murphy, both of Westerly.

Only relatives and intimate friends attended the wedding of Edward P. Welch of Westerly and Miss Sarah Clayton A. Burdick Thursday noon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Clayton A. Burdick at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles C. Cross, in Charlestown.

There will be a vote on the liquor license question in Pawcatuck as well as in Westerly. Unless there be change in the law, the vote in Westerly will decide the license question for two years, as the law specifies that the vote shall be taken in connection with the state election, which is held biennially, although there are annual sessions of the Rhode Island general assembly.

Teutonic Russia.

The Russians have rechristened St. Petersburg, Petrograd, but Teutonium in Russia goes further than names; of the real rulers of Russia are many Teutonic both in name and in blood. Most of them belong to the Teutonic nobility of the Baltic provinces, which is largely descended from the Crusading order of the Teutonic knights who conquered and converted these provinces in the fourteenth century. But Russia has imported Germans on a considerable scale ever since Peter the Great brought them to carry out his work of reorganization. If all the German names of men and cities in Russia are to be believed there will be a rechristening on a large scale. The Russian general in East Prussia at the present moment bears the German name of Rennenkampf. The Russian ambassador in London is Count Benckendorff. At the same time, curiously enough, the German ambassador here the Slavonic name of Lichnowsky. The famous Russian defender of Plevna, by the way, in the Russo-Turkish war bore the German name of Todleben. Among places, the czar's palace itself must change its German name of Peterhof, and the great neighboring fortress of Kronstadt (Crown City) must be given a Slav translation, Manchester Guardian.

London consumes $1,980,000 worth of kerosene yearly.

The Publicity committee of the club of a place in the world, it was later stated that it might be possible to restore the cathedral after the war. Both history and art suffer at the hands of the fire, but the cathedral has been destroyed, universally conceded to be the most wonderful piece of Gothic architecture in existence, a perfect specimen of combined grace and grandeur. Begun in 1210 on the site of an earlier church which had been built by Robert de Courcy, the construction of the cathedral was continued at intervals down to the fifteenth century. The west front, begun about 1241, was pronounced the most beautiful structure produced anywhere in the middle ages, particularly because of its deeply recessed triple portal and a magnificent rose window forty feet in diameter. All the Kings of France from Philip II down to Charles X. were crowned in the cathedral of Rheims, and it was before the great altar that Anne of France stood, banner in hand, after her victorious career to witness the coronation of Charles VII, which marked the fulfillment of her vision. The treasures within the cathedral were no less wonderful than the structure itself. Its sculpture, stained glass and statuary were unsurpassed. The plate of the early centuries, reliquaries containing a thorn of the holy crown and the skull of St. Remig, and countless ancient and priceless tapestries, many dating from the fifteenth century. In a chapel adjoining the vestry was a splendid collection of Roman and mediaeval sculpture, including the sarcophagus of Jovinus, the Roman prefect of Rheims, who was converted to Christianity in 366 A. D.

Thin For Years--

"Gains 22 Pounds in 23 Days"

"I was all run down to the very bottom," writes F. Gagnon. "I had to quit work I was so weak. Now thanks to Sargol, I look like a new man. I gained 22 pounds in 23 days."

"Sargol has put just 10 pounds on me in 14 days," states W. D. Roberts. "It has made me sleep well, enjoy what I ate and enabled me to work with interest and pleasure."

"I weighed 132 pounds when I commenced taking Sargol. After taking 20 days I weighed 144 pounds. Sargol is the most wonderful preparation for flesh building I have ever seen," declares D. Martin, and J. Meier adds: "For the past twenty years I have taken medicine every day for indigestion and got thinner every year. I took Sargol for forty days and feel better than I have felt in twenty years. My weight has increased from 150 to 170 pounds."

When hundreds of men and women—and there are hundreds with more coming every day—living in every nook and corner of this broad land, voluntarily testify to weight increase ranging all the way from 10 to 35 pounds given them by Sargol, you must admit, Mr. and Mrs. Miss Thin Reader, that there must be something in this Sargol method of flesh building after all.

Hadn't you better look into it, just as thousands of others have done? Many thin folks say: "I'd give most anything to put on a little extra weight, but when someone suggests a way they exclaim, 'Not a chance. Nothing will make me plump. I'm built to stay thin.' Until you have tried Sargol, you do not and cannot know that this is true."

Sargol has put pounds of healthy "stay there" flesh on hundreds who doubted, and in spite of their doubts. You don't have to believe in Sargol to grow plump from its use. You just take it and watch weight pile up, hollows vanish and your figure round out to pleasing normal proportions. You weigh yourself when you begin and again when you finish and you let the scales tell the story.

Sargol is absolutely harmless. It is a tiny concentrated tablet. You take one with every meal. It mixes with the food you eat for the purpose of separating all of its flesh producing ingredients. It prepares these fat making elements in an easily assimilated form, which the blood can readily absorb and carry all over your body. Plump, well developed persons don't need Sargol to produce this result. Their assimilative machinery performs its functions without aid. But thin folks' assimilative organs do not. This fatty portion of their food now goes to waste through their bodies like unburned coal through an open grate. A few days' test of Sargol in your case will surely prove whether or not this is true of you. Isn't it worth trying?

If you want a beautiful and well-rounded figure of symmetrical proportion, if you want to gain some solid pounds of healthy stay-there flesh, if you want to increase your weight to normal, weigh what you should weigh, go straight to your druggist today and get a package of Sargol and use it as directed. Sargol will either increase your weight or it won't, and the only way to know is to try it. A single package of Sargol easily enables you to make this test. Sixty days' use of Sargol, according to directions, is absolutely guaranteed to increase your weight to a satisfactory degree or your druggist will refund all the money you have paid him for it. Sargol is sold by leading druggists everywhere and in Norwich and vicinity by

An Easy Way to Get Fat and Be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on dragging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy food, eating on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, such as the cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat. Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This master-stroke of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through its representative, reconstructive powers, to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every starved, broken-down cell and tissue of your body. You can readily picture the effect, when you realize that Sargol transformation has taken place and you no longer feel your stomach full, but you disappear and you take on from 10 to 25 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, although more effective than any leading druggist of Norwich and vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied. Sargol has given excellent results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles. It should not be taken by those who do not wish to gain ten pounds or more.

How Thin People Can Put On Flesh

A NEW DISCOVERY

Thin, ailing women, that big, hearty, alluring figure, that lithe, night. What became of all the fat-producing machinery that nature gave you? You haven't gained in weight one ounce of the present decade. You are a body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, and your food was there, but the fat-making machinery was not working. The plain truth is you hardly eat a scientific combination of six of the best flesh-producing elements known to modern science. They come in a package, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive, and Lee & Osgood and other dealers sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Thin People Can Increase Weight

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy, stay-there flesh should try Sargol. It is a tiny concentrated tablet. You take one with every meal. It mixes with the food you eat for the purpose of separating all of its flesh producing ingredients. It prepares these fat making elements in an easily assimilated form, which the blood can readily absorb and carry all over your body. Plump, well developed persons don't need Sargol to produce this result. Their assimilative machinery performs its functions without aid. But thin folks' assimilative organs do not.
